Pediatric Bereavement Lectureship Program
at the University of Chicago Medicine
Comer Children’s Hospital

featuring

David J Schonfeld, MD, FAAP
Pediatrician-in-Chief, St. Christopher's Hospital for Children
Chair, Department of Pediatrics at Drexel University College of Medicine
Director, National Center for School Crisis and Bereavement

April 11, 2013

12:00 – 1:00pm  “Supporting the Grieving Child and Family”
1:00 – 1:30pm    Q & A Session/Break and Refreshments
1:30 – 3:00pm    “Supporting Children in the Aftermath of Crisis”

All sessions located in Billings Auditorium (P117) in Bernard A. Mitchell Hospital
5815 South Maryland Avenue, Chicago, IL, 60637

The Pediatric Bereavement Lectureship program was created to offer training to pediatricians and other pediatric health care providers to increase their skills and effectiveness in supporting grieving children and their families.

Dr. Schonfeld is a developmental-behavioral pediatrician and the Pediatrician-in-Chief and Director of the National Center for School Crisis and Bereavement at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children and Chair of the Department of Pediatrics at Drexel University College of Medicine. He is a member the American Academy of Pediatrics Disaster Preparedness Advisory Council and the Sandy Hook Commission in CT, and served as a Commissioner for the National Commission on Children and Disasters.

Please RSVP at chiefs@peds.bsd.uchicago.edu. Everyone is welcome to attend regardless, but those who RSVP will receive more details and updates regarding the program.